

Language requirements

All incoming exchange students coming to UPV should give proof of their sufficient knowledge of the Spanish Language in one of the following ways:

-A certificate of having achieved level A1 (CEFR) of Spanish

(http://www.coe.int/T/DG4/Portfolio/?M=/main_pages/levels.html)

-A certificate stating that they have taken at least 100 hours of Spanish language classes

If the student's actual language abilities do not correspond to the ones mentioned above, he/she will not be accepted in the Spanish language regular courses offered by the university, and could be refused enrolment upon arrival at UPV.

Although the minimum required level is A1, most Schools/Faculties at UPV MAY HAVE STRICTER REQUIREMENTS, please contact the international office of your UPV school (intade@ade.upv.es) to check the requirements. Applicants are strongly encouraged to reach at least a B1 level before arriving at UPV in order to follow the university courses taught in Spanish. The Spanish intensive course offered in our campus in Gandía can help the student reach the required level, but it is not enough by itself, as it only provides 40 hours of teaching.

Exceptions can be considered if the applicant intends to do ONLY project work (bachelor or master thesis, etc.) supervised in English or another language. A letter or email explaining this circumstance should be enclosed with the application material. These students cannot participate in the Spanish language regular courses which begin at A2 level of CEFR.

I hereby declare that I understand and accept the above-mentioned Language Requirements
