

FAQs FUTURE STUDENTS FADE-UPV

1. Can I study at the FADE as student of exchange?

In order to study at FADE (Facultad de Administración y Dirección de Empresas) as an incoming student it has to exist a bilateral agreement between your university and FADE. In addition, your university must select you and nominate you to in order to begin the process of application. Once verified the bilateral agreement, an e-mail will be sent to your coordinator with the instructions to start the application process.

2. How can I know if I have been admitted into the FADE?

Once checked your application, you will receive your letter of acceptance by e-mail with all the information needed to start planning your stay in Valencia and your studies at FADE.

3. Where can I find information about the subjects taught at FADE?

The information about the degrees and the subjects is available at the faculty's website at:

http://www.upv.es/titulaciones/GADE/menu\_1012984i.html

http://www.upv.es/titulaciones/GGAP/menu\_1012915c.html

Please notice that there exists an English group, so some of the subjects are offered in both Spanish and English. However, we strongly recommend our incoming students to study in Spanish as there is a wider offer for those groups, what makes it easier for you to set your schedule and plan your academic choice. Moreover, most of the agreements only allow to take courses in Spanish. You can check that with your academic exchange coordinator.

4. How is academic course divided?

The academic course is divided in two semesters. The first semester begins in September and finishes in January and, the second semester begins in January and finishes in June.

5. Where can I find the academic calendar?

The academic calendar is published at our website in FADE UPV >> Grado ADE or Grado GAP >> Calendario Académico or by clicking the link:

9. Are there any Spanish Language courses at UPV?

Yes, UPV offers free courses of Spanish to the incoming students for A1, A2, B1 and B2 every semester. These courses are worth 4.5 ECTS and last for the whole semester. Also, an Spanish course is offered in Gandia campus to all exchange students before the starting date of the semester.

10. Is there any welcome day?

Yes, the UPV's international office organizes a welcome day in which students are shown the facilities and introduced to the Services available at the campus such us sport activities, library... This welcome day is usually conducted during the second week of the semester. Moreover, you will be assisted at our office at your arrival and we will give you all the information needed.

11. Is there any program to support exchange students during their stay at UPV?

Yes, through the mentor (buddy) program you can contact a student of the UPV who is studying at FADE in order to directly ask questions to better plan your stay. She/he could also help you during your first days in Valencia and to move around the faculty. If you are assigned a student Mentor, you must complete a questionnaire about how your work after your Incorporation in the UPV.
